

GO GO

Aptly named GO GO TOMAGO knows what it takes to be fast. She's tough, athletic and loyal to the bone, but not much of a conversationalist. Popping bubble gum and delivering well-placed sarcasm are totally her speed. "She's definitely a woman of few words," says director Don Hall. "She's streetwise. We looked at bicycle messengers as inspiration for her character."

The daredevil adrenaline junkie is at her best on wheels, and when Go Go joins forces with "Big Hero 6," she rolls like never before, using maglev discs as wheels, shields and throwing weapons.

Jamie Chung was called on to provide the voice of Go Go Tomago.
